Biography

EXTENDED BIOGRAPHY

Albert Gugulan is a Romanian pianist, born in Naples and musically trained in Romania. His artistic development has brought him over 80 First Prizes at national piano competitions, alongside trophies and special distinctions. In 2024, he received the Grand Prix at the international Stelle di Roma competition in Italy.

His work includes piano recitals and chamber music projects. In 2019, he received the Grand Prize and trophy at the Virtuozii National Piano Competition in Brăila. Since 2024, he has studied at the National University of Music Bucharest, continuing his musical education alongside his artistic activities.

In 2023, he reached the Grand Final of season 13 of Romania's Got Talent on PRO TV. Music by Franz Liszt featured in both his semi-final and final performances. His participation brought him to the attention of audiences across Romania; he subsequently appeared on La Măruță to discuss his musical beginnings.

The repertoire he has studied spans Baroque, Classical, Romantic and modern music, with works by Bach, Beethoven, Chopin, Liszt, Rachmaninoff and Debussy. It encompasses sonatas, collections of piano pieces, études and transcriptions. In chamber music, he collaborates with violinist Ionuț Pandelescu in Duo Veritas, a project for violin and piano that complements his work as a solo pianist.
